Dear Strahan

I sent up to Mr. Millar four or five posts ago the same additions, which I had formerly sent to you, with a good many corrections and improvements which occurred to me since. If there are any typographical errors remaining in the last edition which had escaped me, I hope you will correct them. In other respects I could wish it was printed pretty exactly according to the copy which I delivered to you. A man, says the Spanish proverb, had better be a cuckold and know nothing of the matter, than not be cuckold and believe himself to be one. And in the same manner, say I,

Remember me to the Franklins. I hope I shall have the grace to write to the youngest by next post to thank him in the name both of the College and of myself for his very agreeable present. Remember me likewise to Mr. Griffiths. I am greatly obliged to him for the very handsom character he gave of my book in his review. I ever am, Dear Strahan

most faithfully and
sincerely yours

Dear Strahan

I send up to Mr. Millar <sup>four copies</sup> of the same edition which he had forwarded to you with a good many corrections & improvements which I intended to make. If there are any typographical errors remaining in the last edition which had escaped me, I hope you will correct them. In other respects I could wish it was printed pretty exactly according to the copy which I delivered to you. A man says the printer's proof had better be a lock of a horse's tailing of the matter, than not be locked & believe me to be over. And in the same manner, say,

Remember me <sup>to</sup> the Brethren. I hope you shall have the grace to be preserved by real faith to think them in the name both of the college & of myself for his very agreeable presence. Remember me likewise to Mr. Griffiths you are greatly obliged to him for the very kind & useful notice he gave of my book in his review. I am Dear Strahan

Most faithfully
Sincerely yours
